Kamado Grill

Blaze 20-Inch Cast Aluminum Kamado

The modern kamado-style grill is widely considered one of the most versatile grills on the market. With most modern kamado grills being made from a ceramic housing, these grills can retain heat for long periods of time, making them great for grilling, smoking, and baking. Kamados can reach consistent temperatures as low as 225°F and as high as 750°+ F. Using the vent system, precise control of airflow can be maintained, allowing kamados to function much like wood-fired ovens and they can be used to roast or bake anything.

Blaze introduces the industry's first kamado grill made out of 1" and thicker, solid cast aluminum. The unique all-aluminum design provides unparalleled durability, and the same outstanding temperature control and heat retention kamado grills are known for. Also, the non-porous grill body allows for use of any charcoal or wood, as well as any ignition method or material for the lighting of charcoal without worry of damaging the unit or absorption of materials into the grill housing. The Blaze kamado's cast aluminum body, stainless steel cooking grids, hinge, and all other parts are covered by a lifetime warranty.

Vent Hoods

Blaze 42" Vent Hood

Ventilating an outdoor cooking space can be challenging due to the increased amount of smoke produced by outdoor cooking equipment. The Blaze Outdoor Vent Hood pairs a deeper hood canopy with a powerful twin motor system to effectively clean the air from the grilling area. The industry leading 36" depth of the Blaze Hood protrudes further over the cooking space, capturing more smoke when the grill lid is opened. The twin 1,000 CFM motors create roughly 2,000 CFMs of pull, which averages 60% greater suction when compared to stronger outside hoods on the market today. The Blaze Outdoor Vent Hood's powerful suction and increased depth allows an installation further away from the cooking surface. This offers both an easier view of the cooking area along with increased comfort for the chef.

Blaze 42" Vent Hood

- 36" canopy depth maximizes the capture range of the vent hood
- Two independent and individually controlled 1,000 CFM 4 speed motors (2,000 CFMs total) provide exceptional smoke removal
- Higher allowable install height creates a more comfortable work area
- 4 halogen lights illuminate your cooking surface any time of day or night
- Innovative grease free retractable controls with lighted facing
- Reversible motors and back venting option

Coarse salt, to taste
Enough corn meal to coat pizza peel and stone (prevents sticking)

Directions

1. In a mixing bowl, blend mineral water, yeast, and honey.
2. Allow yeast mixture to proof for 10 minutes.
3. While that happens, in another mixing bowl, whisk together salt and bread flour.
4. Once yeast has proofed for 10 minutes, make a well in the center of your flour mix, and pour in the liquid.
5. Use your hand to mix the flour into the liquid.
6. Depending on the humidity of your area, you might need to add a splash of water, or a little flour to reach the doughy consistency.
7. Once you have the right consistency, turn everything out onto a well floured work area.
8. Work the dough for 5 to 8 minutes, until it is smooth and elastic.
9. Coat dough ball in olive oil, place in bowl to rise covered with a damp towel. Allow it to rise until doubled in size in a warm area for about an hour, or you can allow it to slow rise in the fridge inside a ziplock bag for up to 2 days.
10. In a mixing bowl, combine all of the sauce ingredients, stir well and set aside for assembling pizza.
11. Once dough has doubled in size, remove from bowl to a well floured area.
12. Cut dough ball into 2 smaller dough balls. This will make two 12-inch round pizzas.
13. If your dough rose in the fridge, make sure it comes to room temp before attempting to press out.
14. Press dough out from center, until it forms a thin pizza crust.
15. On a pizza peel, sprinkle some cornmeal, place pizza dough onto peel.
16. Spread a thin layer of sauce onto pizza, top with chopped mozzarella.
17. Preheat your grill to 600° F.
18. Sprinkle cornmeal on your pizza stone, place pizza in oven.
19. Turn your pizza after a few minutes.
20. Once pizza sauce is bubbling, cheese is melted, and crust is golden brown, remove pizza to cutting board.
21. Slice, serve, and enjoy!
